- Reusable Nappy, Reusable Sanitary Products, and Reusable Breast Pad Rebate Trial period from 1 March 2022 for a period of six months (or until funding is exhausted).
- The maximum amount claimable by residents participating in the rebate program is:
 - 50% of the purchase price, up to a maximum of $100 for reusable cloth nappy products including: cloth nappies, reusable swim nappies, reusable training nappies, reusable inner liner for nappies, reusable wet bags, reusable wipes associated with cloth nappies.
 - 50% of the purchase price, up to a maximum of $100 for reusable sanitary products including reusable sanitary pads, leak proof underwear, and menstrual cups.
 - 50% of the purchase price, up to a maximum of $50 for reusable breast pads per household for those that provide a receipt showing proof of purchase and prove that they are a resident of the City of Ballarat.

- The rebate does not include transport costs, nappy hire, wipes containers, decorative (i.e., not leak-proof) nappy covers, postage/delivery, or single-use items.
- The applicant must reside in the property within the City of Ballarat that is requesting the rebate and provide proof of residence in the form of rates notice/utility account/drivers licence or other officially document proving the applicant's place of residence, which is a maximum of 3 months old.
- City of Ballarat will accept only one application for each rebate category per house household for the period of the trial.
- To apply for a rebate for each category, applicants must fill in separate application forms.
- The applicant must provide a copy of the receipt or proof of purchase. It must clearly identify the company name, date of purchase, and name and cost of each item purchased.
- Receipt or proof of purchase must be no older than 3 months and be whole, not a partial copy.
- The proof of residence must be dated within 3 months of the proof of purchase date.
- Applications are to be submitted online or, if an applicant does not have computer access, applications can be completed at City of Ballarat's Customer Service Centre at the Phoenix Building.
- Successful applicants will have the rebate transferred to their nominated bank account within 21 days of being processed.
- The City of Ballarat holds no responsibility for following up missing information the applicant failed to supply.
- The City of Ballarat holds the right to reject any application on the basis it is determined ineligible.
- The rebate program may be paused at any time if City of Ballarat's budget allocation has been exhausted.
