

CITY OF BALLARAT
LGBTIQA+
Inclusion Plan
2022–2026

The City of Ballarat acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the land we live and work on, the Wadawurrung and Dja Dja Wurrung People, and recognises their continuing connection to the land and waterways.

We pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging and extend this to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples.

Our vision for inclusion

Ballarat is an inclusive city where diversity is not only accepted but welcomed and celebrated.

Our city values the contribution of all people and our spaces, places, programs, events and services are designed to be welcoming and accessible to all.

We recognise that not everyone has the same experience and we work to make sure that people receive the support they need to ensure that no one is left behind.

Our vision for an inclusive Ballarat draws directly from the City of Ballarat Community Vision – a community-driven statement that highlights inclusion as a key part of our city’s thriving future.

Community quotes from the Inclusive Ballarat engagement process can be found throughout this plan...

“We aspire to be an inclusive city that celebrates diversity and is safe and welcoming to LGBTIQA+ people.

We recognise the significant contribution our LGBTIQA+ community makes to Ballarat being a vibrant community and we celebrate the diversity of our city.

It is in the best interests of all of us.”

Why do we have this plan?

Local governments are required by law to protect, improve and promote the health and wellbeing of their communities. Inclusion in community, work, learning and decision making is vital to good health.

As the level of government closest to the people, local government has the greatest opportunity to lead tangible local change by challenging discrimination, and championing increasingly inclusive attitudes and practices that support and celebrate LGBTIQ+ people.

The City of Ballarat acknowledges our responsibility to lead the development of inclusive policies and plans that recognise, respect and value diversity.

We are committed to taking practical actions to support everyone who lives in the municipality to be able to participate fully in life and to feel safe, welcome, visible and included.

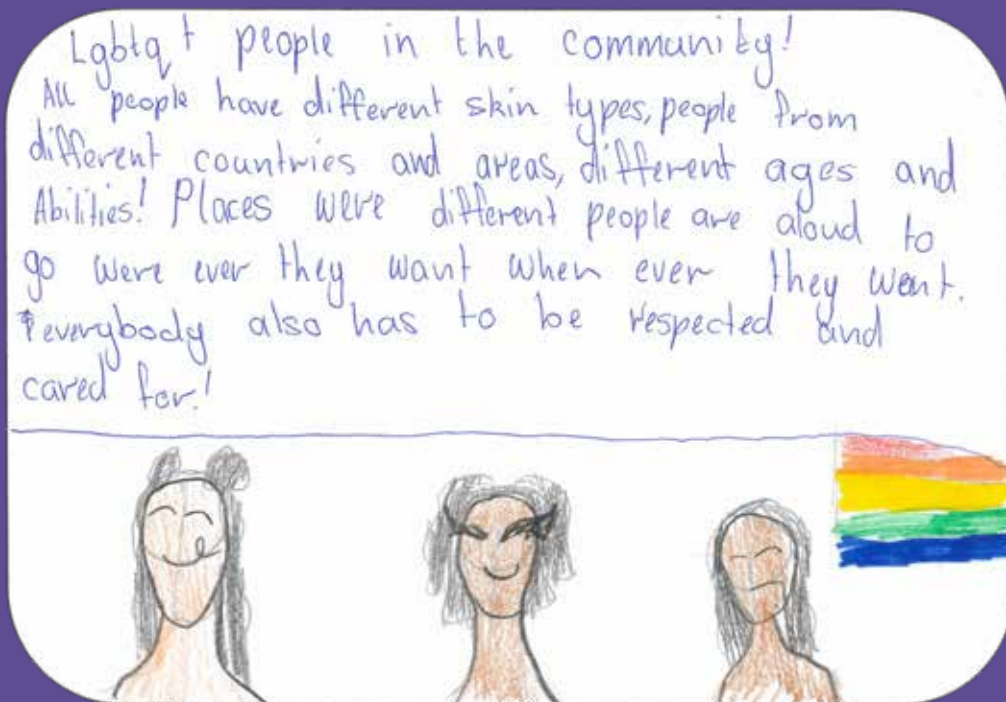

“Community safety is deeper than rainbow stickers.”

Community-led conversation

What is inclusion?

Inclusion exists when:

- people can see themselves in their community.
- people feel visible and represented.
- people feel safe, included, welcome and accepted in all parts of their lives.
- diversity is celebrated and its value is recognised.
- places, spaces, programs, services and events are accessible, safe and welcoming for everyone.
- everyone can participate fully in life and reach their potential.

“More acceptance of diverse choices, interests and styles – less staring at people who seem different.”

Community-led conversation

“Stepping away from assuming heteronormativity.”

Community survey

“We need to be a world designed for everyone.”

Community survey

Why is this plan important?

Some groups in our community face greater challenges than others: in learning, working, voicing their opinions and participating fully in life.

LGBTIQ+ people are more likely to experience discrimination, exclusion and inequality, leading to poorer health and social outcomes. Beyond individual impacts, the broader community misses out on the skills, talents and contribution that LGBTIQ+ people can share when they are part of an inclusive community.

LGBTIQ+ people may need a range of supports to make sure they have the same opportunity to participate and to address discrimination.

The City of Ballarat recognise that there is significant diversity within LGBTIQ+ communities. We also recognise that experiences vary from person to person, and that individual and group requirements are not static and can change over time and across different settings.

Different people have different needs

We have a responsibility to help people receive the support they need to be able to participate fully in life and ensure that no one is left behind.

Inclusion is vital to social wellbeing

According to the World Health Organisation, inclusion is vital to social wellbeing: “Being included in the society in which one lives is vital to the material, psychosocial and political empowerment that underpins social wellbeing and equitable health.”

Diversity enriches and strengthens our community

Ballarat’s diverse communities bring a wealth of ideas, experiences, knowledge, creativity and world views that enrich the social, civic, economic and cultural fabric of our city. We have a thriving and growing LGBTIQ+ community in Ballarat. They are active in organising arts and cultural initiatives, providing social opportunities to connect, and establishing LGBTIQ+ organisations and networks that support inclusion.

Ballarat is a changing and diverse community

About 11,000 people in Ballarat identify as LGBTIQA+. This is approximately 10 per cent of our population and almost double the Victorian average of 5.7 per cent.*

What are the key challenges for LGBTIQ+ people?

LGBTIQ+ people are more likely to face barriers to inclusion and experience poorer social and health outcomes than the general population.

They are more likely to experience discrimination, express lower satisfaction with life, experience high or very high psychological distress and experience greater rates of anxiety and depression.

They are more likely to experience family violence, have two or more chronic diseases, live with disability, and experience disadvantage and inequity in employment and financial and housing insecurity.

They are also more likely to experience social isolation due to barriers to participation such as not feeling safe, welcome or accepted.

The City of Ballarat acknowledges the diversity of LGBTIQ+ communities and that individuals within the communities face specific challenges, experience greater discrimination or are more marginalised than others.

- Rates of psychological distress and discrimination are highest for trans and gender diverse people.
- LGBTIQ+ culturally and linguistically diverse people face multiple forms of discrimination in the workplace and feel less comfortable to be 'out' at work.
- LGBTIQ+ Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People report higher rates of interpersonal violence and can face a lack of acceptance in their own cultural communities.
- LGBTIQ+ people with disability report difficulties in managing multiple identities and forms of service provision.
- The cumulative effects of lifelong discrimination impact on LGBTIQ+ older people. The Royal Commission into Aged Care Quality and Safety recognised that older LGBTIQ+ people, along with others from diverse backgrounds, may have varied life experiences and face challenges accessing aged care services that meet their particular needs.
- Younger LGBTIQ+ people report feeling unsafe or uncomfortable in educational settings such as high school, especially in rural and regional areas, and report higher levels of poor mental health and homelessness.

What is our approach?

“We recognise the important leadership role we play in ensuring that everyone who lives in the municipality has the opportunity to participate in all aspects of community life and fulfil their own aspirations.

We will take practical actions within our organisation and in the areas in our community where we have influence, to support our LGBTIQ+ communities and foster a truly inclusive Ballarat.

This includes providing inclusive community facilities and public spaces, delivering inclusive services and employing people that represent our diverse community.”

City of Ballarat LGBTIQ+ Advisory Committee

The following groups are critical to the implementation of this plan.

City of Ballarat Gender Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Committee

This group is chaired by the City of Ballarat Chief Executive Officer and draws on participation from across Council teams.

It oversees the organisation’s high-level inclusion work and ensures that legislative requirements are met.

City of Ballarat Diversity, Access, Equity and Inclusion Reference Group

This group was established in 2021. It consists primarily of staff responsible for a broad range of portfolio areas that focus on priority populations for the City of Ballarat including children and families, young people, older people, women, people from diverse cultural and religious backgrounds, people with disability, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People and LGBTIQ+ people. The reference group members are responsible for plans that sit within City of Ballarat’s Inclusion Framework. Representatives from other relevant Council areas such as recreation, libraries and strategic planning also sit on the reference group.

This group works to ensure that an intersectional approach to inclusion is taken in the implementation of each plan that sits under the Inclusion Framework.

City of Ballarat LGBTIQ+ Advisory Committee

This group was established in 2021 to provide support and advice on inclusion for LGBTIQ+ people, particularly in relation to City of Ballarat policies, strategies, services and activities. It consists of people with lived experience, those who work or volunteer with LGBTIQ+ people and those who have expertise in this area.

This group has been instrumental in the development of this plan and play an important role in informing the implementation of the actions in it.

The City of Ballarat Inclusion Framework

The City of Ballarat have developed an Inclusion Framework to guide our inclusion work across a range of priority groups. This involves a whole-of-organisation approach to inclusion. It also involves understanding that people often fit into several priority groups and that we need to address the many ways that people face discrimination and exclusion.

This plan forms part of the Inclusion Framework.

Inclusion principles

Our principles are the foundational ideas that shape our planning and decision-making for our inclusion work.

Our diversity is our strength

We understand that every person can make valuable contributions, and that diversity strengthens our organisation and our community.

Equity

We understand that providing a level playing field means providing different supports to different people, based upon need.

Intersectionality

We acknowledge that people are complex with multiple aspects to their identity. Different aspects of a person's identity can expose them to overlapping forms of discrimination and marginalisation. We will consider the multiple forms of discrimination and disadvantage that may be experienced by our priority groups.

Diversity and inclusion is business as usual

We will work towards organisational change to ensure that diversity and inclusion are embedded in our policies, processes, facilities, programs and services.

Strong partnerships

We will support and strengthen existing partnerships and seek to form new ones with those working to promote inclusion in the community. We acknowledge the immense amount of work already being done in this area.

Inclusive engagement

We will engage meaningfully with our community, ensuring that our engagement processes are inclusive and that we engage directly with priority groups on issues that affect them.

In addition to our overarching inclusion principles, the following principle applies to our work in LGBTIQ+ inclusion.

Safety

We recognise that safety is a core requirement to enable LGBTIQ+ inclusion. We will work to promote safety in all environments to ensure that LGBTIQ+ people can participate in all areas of life without fear or risk of discrimination.

Common areas for action

Our overarching focus for the next four years will be to build organisational knowledge and capacity to improve inclusive practice in our organisation and promote inclusion in the broader community. To achieve this, we will focus our work on seven key areas which have been developed based on feedback from our community

1. We will commit to building organisational knowledge and capacity

We will conduct assessments to understand areas for improvement. We will seek advice from priority groups about how to deliver improvements. We will evaluate our progress and seek to continually fine-tune and improve our practice.

2. We will lead and advocate

We will advocate for our priority groups and the issues affecting them. We will role model inclusive practice.

3. We will provide a diverse and inclusive workplace

We will ensure our staff and volunteer recruitment and workplace policies promote a diverse, safe and welcoming workplace. We will build an inclusive culture and provide inclusive work sites.

4. We will provide welcoming and inclusive spaces

We will design and operate our facilities and public spaces to promote safety and inclusion.

5. We will provide welcoming and inclusive services and programs

We will work to ensure our services, programs, projects and events are inclusive and welcoming.

6. We will listen to our community

We will work to ensure our engagement practices are inclusive. We will work to ensure that all priority groups have opportunities to advise us directly on the design of inclusive processes, projects, programs and services.

7. We will connect our community

We will support opportunities for people to connect with others, with places and with the services they need.

Specific actions that will deliver these capability improvements are detailed in the action plan which can be found on page 30.

What our community told us

In 2022, a broad community engagement process titled 'Inclusive Ballarat' was undertaken.

Inclusive Ballarat used a two-phased approach that involved consultation with the broader community and targeted engagement with people from LGBTIQA+ communities and those connected to them via local networks and groups.

This plan and its two-year action plan have been informed by the key findings from Inclusive Ballarat.

A range of engagement methods and tools were used such as a community survey, community-led conversations and interactive engagement tools.

We heard...

75% of LGBTIQ+ respondents have experienced discrimination in Ballarat

55% of LGBTIQ+ respondents feel safe in Ballarat

Community-led conversation

Community-led conversation

Community-led conversation

We heard...

The experiences of LGBTIQ+ people are diverse

LGBTIQ+ is not a catch-all category – LGBTIQ+ communities are diverse and intersectional and some LGBTIQ+ people and groups are more marginalised and/or isolated such as young people, older people and trans people.

Advocacy is important

Advocacy for LGBTIQ+ inclusion by the City of Ballarat must be undertaken at local, state and federal levels and be underpinned by continuous engagement and consultation with LGBTIQ+ communities.

Education is important to promote safety

Education and inclusivity training are essential to create safer spaces for LGBTIQ+ people.

Visibility is important

LGBTIQ+ visibility and representation through public art and displays, events, photos, communications, flags, stickers and a diverse workforce are important to normalise gender diversity.

There is a need for local information about supportive places and spaces

LGBTIQ+ friendly information needs a home base to connect LGBTIQ+ people with supportive services, businesses, events and each other.

Accountability is important

Suitable auditing and reporting mechanisms and up-to-date data are crucial for accountability in LGBTIQ+ inclusive plans, services and infrastructure.

Consultation findings from the Inclusive Ballarat engagement process were analysed and responses were grouped into themes that shaped the priority areas. Actions in the two-year action plan were then selected based on priority, feasibility and resourcing.

What are the priorities for the 4-year plan?

Priority areas

Informed by community engagement, research and review of Victoria's LGBTIQ+ Strategy, our LGBTIQ+ inclusion work over the coming four years will be focused on the following four priority areas.

A two-year action plan outlining actions under each priority area can be found on page 30.

A second two-year action plan will be developed in 2024 and will build on the progress of this first action plan.

Priority areas

	Priority 4: Inclusion “I am supported, consulted and connected with others.”

How will we track our progress?

We will monitor and review our progress against the actions detailed in this plan to ensure it remains relevant and responsive to our community’s needs. Our progress will be reported annually to Councillors and made public.

A review of this plan will be undertaken every four years and it will be updated to reflect our improved knowledge, skills and practices. A mid-plan review will inform the development of the next two-year action plan.
